Fun run went along beach

FORMER world boxing champion Terry Spinks started a fun run from Worthing Pier on Friday night.

The Friends of Ashwood Cheshire Home, Worthing, organised the run to raise funds to take residents on a continental holiday.

Chairman Mrs Pam Bell said, 'We raise funds all year long and hopefully we can raise enough to send the nine boys and girls on holiday.'

Some of the runners took part in fancy dress on a windy evening which obviously put some of the fun-runners off.

Further events scheduled include a flag day in Worthing town centre on August 13 and the society would dearly love helpers.

'We desperately need more committee members and people to help this organisation which is run as one big family,' said Mrs Bell.

Anyone interested in giving up a bit time to help the society is asked to ring Mrs Bell on Worthing 41821.
