ALL the fun of the fayre – and the energy of pop-mobility – as enjoyed at last year's event

Three days of fun!

BARBARA Windsor official opening of the Worthing's seventh Mayor of Worthing Seafront Fayre at 10 am on Friday July 29.

This will herald three days of fun and entertainment with a host of attractions in the vicinity of the seafront and town centre.

and stalls to the east of the pier.

Other attractions include the popular Gas Light Charity Market and Seafront Market on Saturday evening, aerobatics, shows, displays and a torchlight procession and fireworks display on Friday evening.

The money raised will benefit many charities.

'By joining in and enjoying the festivities,' says Mayor John Cotton, 'we will all be helping those less fortunate than ourselves.'

A new innovation at this year's Fayre will be three hot air balloons doing tethered ascents on the seafront.

Stevens Fun Fair will be open from 2 pm to 11 pm on Friday and Saturday and from 2 pm to 6 pm on Sunday. Rides will be on the seafront to the west of the pier
