Hook up, Dumbo, and follow us to the sea!

02.09.1988

SHOPPERS WERE SHOCKED in Worthing on Wednesday when they spotted a trail of elephants marching through the town centre!

Some must have thought they had stepped on to another continent as the ambling grey beasts made their way through Warwick Street precinct.

Children stared wide-eyed as the gentle giants, pictured by Derek Martin, hooked tail to trunk for their stroll to the seafront.

The animals belong to the Robert Brothers Super Circus, which is currently giving daily shows at Brooklands Pleasure Park in Worthing.

The circus will stay in town until September 4.
